COLLEGE CHRISTIAN MEETING

The M. E. church was taxed to its full seating capacity last evening on the occasion of the joint meeting of the college Christian associations, under whose auspices the meeting was held. C. H. McKnight, of the Y. M. C. A., and Miss Alma Hales, of the Y. W. C. A., occupied seats on the platform, and spoke briefly of the work of the societies were endeavoring to do among students, and urged that people contribute liberally to the Gearhart fund, where a summer conference will be held in a few weeks. The purpose of this conference is to train active workers for the work of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. in the colleges of Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho.

The speaker of the evening was Rev. Burgette Short, pastor of the Taylor street church in Portland. He took as his theme "Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy mind." Love, he said, was the supreme thing in religion. The Bible, in its entirety, was a message of love; of God's love for man; of man's love for man; and of man's love for God. Christianity appeals not only to the heart, but also to the mind. The intellect, as well as the heart, must be convinced of the verities set in the book. Rev. Short stated that neither the Bible nor Christianity feared the most searching investigation and criticism that might be turned upon it. The mind must be satisfied of the truths set therein. Intellectual activity is a necessity in religion. "Christ is not afraid of Criticism, nor does he fear the keenest scholarship, and 'foolship' cannot hurt it," triumphantly shouted the preacher.

The speaker believes in religion that has feeling, but none the less in the religion that is acquired through the intellect. Hours of ecstatic joy those belong to the Christian, but more powerful is Paul's testimony, "I know what I believe." The church of today needs men, strong men, who will think, and who will not be afraid to think, hence the church is fostering and promoting the higher Christian education by endeavoring to support colleges and universities from the Atlantic seaboard to the Pacific. For that purpose does old Willamette stand.

"He who dares to question the old dogmas," said the speaker, "must stand the inquisitorial fires of ecclesiastical councils. The heretic of today is the patron saint of tomorrow. The heretic is not such a bad type of humanity. It is the man who thinks, who does things who stir the world. 'I have but little faith in what is termed death-bed repentance. It is important that at the time of this transaction between God and man that the creature in the possession of his entire faculties.'"

Deadly Serpent Bites.

Are as common in India as are stomach and liver disorders with us. For the latter, however, there is a sure remedy. Electric Bitters, the great restorative medicine, of which S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "They restored my wife to perfect health after years of suffering with dyspepsia and a chronically torpid liver." Electric Bitters cure chills and fever, malaria, biliousness, lame back, kidney troubles and bladder disorders. Sold only on guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist, Salem, Or. Price, 50c.

The men who see the little things and do them, are the men who accomplish great results.

That Tired Feeling.

If you are languid, depressed, incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw off headaches, rheumatism and ailments akin to nervousness and restore the energies and vitality of sound and perfect health. J. J. Hubbard, Temple, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for the past year. It has done me more good than all the doctors. It is the best medicine ever made for chills and fever." 50c. For sale by D. J. Fry.

Too many men spend so much time getting ready that they run out of time before they begin.

Good looks bring happiness. Friends care more for us when we meet them with a clean, smiling face, bright eyes sparkling with health, which comes by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents; Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's drug store.

Smiles

There is a difference between hot air and doing things.

The moonlight holds out but the cherries are short.

Men who vote a straight ticket are becoming scarce.

A President who can even make slaughter houses clean up is all right.

Dallas, Polk county, is a progressive place. It is now moving for a high school.

Toledo Reporter: Ten good dairy cows and a little ranch will discount any county office.

George A. Westgate of Albany and J. M. Shelley of Eugene are aspirants to succeed J. L. Patterson as collector of customs.

Ex-Sheriff W. W. Gage has been elected sheriff of Coos county, to succeed Sheriff Stephen Gallier, by a plurality of eight votes.

Some man by the name of Ackerman was running for state superintendent of schools and got in by a close shave of having a unanimous vote.

Trolley rides between Wilkesbarre, Pa., and Hazleton, Pa., can be made in one hour, fifteen minutes, the same distance as from Salem to Portland.

Canby Tribune: No matter whether your candidate got elected or not the crops will still grow, the sun will shine and everything will go along as usual.

An exchange says a Massachusetts youth of 19 jilted his sweetheart of 19 and married her mother of 45. The explanation is that the old lady can cook and the girl couldn't.

Eugene Register: An undertaker in a town in the west has opened an automobile agency as a side line—thus laying himself open to suspicion that he is trying to increase his business.

Jonathan Bourne getting a fortune that threatens to make him a millionaire would be very opportune if it were not for the fact that Statement No. 1 men will vote for him without paying them one cent.

Toledo Reporter: HOW fleeting fame is. Allice Roosevelt, under the less famous name of Longworth, can start on an ocean voyage for Europe now and the papers have no more to say about it than if it had been Mrs. William Brown.

The Delineator for July is out. There is only one Delineator. It is the authority for the millions. It influences for better garmenture more women, young women, misses and children than any other one single publication. Great is the Delineator.

Canby Tribune: A neat, clean home and surroundings are more attractive to children and youth, so that it renders them less liable to wander off into mischief. There will come, too, a better class of young companions to visit them. Such a home induces better conduct and adds to the whole family's comfort and happiness. It inclines them to pious thought. "Cleanliness is next to godliness." You can't imagine heaven a dirty place.

Thomas Balmer, advertising manager of the Butterick publications, says: "You cannot kill an elephant with a popgun. Neither can you get a page effect with an inch advertisement."

Which is just another way of saying you cannot do justice to your new stock with a small ad. Suppose you try a page ad. in this paper.

IT TAKES TIME, REPETITION AND common sense arguments to make people believe in buying your goods and come back for more. Too many advertisers empty their appropriation sand boxes on the first grade, and the road to advertising success is strewn with the bleaching skeletons of the victims of one insertion.

John Wanamaker once said, "To discontinue advertising is like taking down your sign."

You have a sign above your door to let people know who you are and what you are doing. That's what your advertising does. It merely multiplies your sign. It lets thousands of people know what you have to sell.—M. L. Corey, Secretary National Retail Hardware Dealers' Association in Retail and Advertiser.
